Translator’s Introduction

All praise and thanks are due to Allāh, we praise Him, seek His help and ask Him for forgiveness. Whoever Allāh guides, none can misguide and whoever Allāh leaves to stray, none can guide. I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship save Allāh alone, who has no partner and I bear witness that Muḥammad (ﷺ) is His servant and Messenger.

Allāh, the Exalted says,

وَلَيْسَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُواْ مُمْتَزِجُونَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُواْ أَسْمَاءَ مَا كَانُواْ يَعْمَلُونَ

To Allāh belong the most beautiful and perfect Names, so invoke Him by them. Abandon those who desecrate His Names, they will be recompensed for what they did.

[al-‘A‘rāf (7): 180]

‘From the most noble and lofty stations of cognisance is to know the Lord, the Glorious, through His beauty. This is the knowledge possessed by the elite of this creation. All of them know Him through an Attribute from amongst His Attributes but those amongst them who have the most complete cognisance are those who know Him through His perfection, magnificence and beauty. There is nothing comparable to Him in any of His Attributes, if you were to assume that the whole of creation was in its most exquisite form, and you were to try and compare their collective outward and inward beauty to the beauty of the Lord, the Glorious, the comparison would be more ineffectual than a faint torch being held against the blazing disk of the sun.

It is sufficient to know of His beauty that if His veil was lifted, everything that the splendour of His Face fell upon of His creation would be obliterated. It is sufficient to know that all beauty, external and internal, to be found in this world and the Hereafter is from the resultant effects of His work, so what then would one think of the beauty of the One from whom this beauty emanated? It is sufficient to know of His beauty that to him belongs nobility in its entirety, strength and power in its entirety, generosity and kindness in its entirety, beneficence in its entirety, knowledge in its entirety and grace in its entirety.

From the light of His Face are all darknesses illuminated, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said when supplicating at Ṭā‘if,

I take refuge with the Light of Your Face that illuminates the darknesses and upon which the affairs of the world and the Hereafter are rightly ordered.1

‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd said, ‘there is no night and day with your Lord, the light of the heavens and the earth comes from the light

1 ‘Ali Ḥasan: Reported by ibn Ishāq, as-Sirah, at-Ṭabarī, Tārikh and others and the ḥadith is not authentic. - summarised.
of His Face.'

Therefore, He, the Glorious is the light of the heavens and the earth and on the Day of Judgement, when He comes to judge mankind, His light will illuminate the earth.

One of His Names is al-Jamil (the Beautiful), in the Ṣaḥīḥ it is reported from him (ﷺ) that he said,

Allāh is Jamīl and He loves beauty.\(^3\)

His beauty is of four levels: the beauty of His Essence or Person (dbāt), the beauty of His Attributes, the beauty of His Actions and the beauty of His Names.

All of His Names are beautiful, all of His Attributes are perfect, all of His Actions are based upon pure wisdom, they are beneficial, just and serve as a mercy....

Therefore it is upon the servant to know that there is none worthy of worship besides Him, it is upon him to love Him simply because He is who He is and due to His perfection. It is also upon him to know that in reality there is none who favours one with every type of outward and inward blessing except He and therefore he should love Him for this as well and praise Him. Hence the servant should love Him for both of these matters....\(^4\)

\(^3\) Ali Ḥasan: Muslim [no. 91] from ibn Masʿūd.

\(^4\) Ibn al-Qayyim, al-Fawā'id [p. 258].
In compliance to the above exhortation, this treatise has been extracted from the opening words of Shaykh Nāṣir as-Sa‘dī, may Allāh have mercy upon him, to his tafsīr of the Qur‘ān, Taysir al-Karim al-Rahmān, in which he succinctly and beautifully explains those Names of Allāh that occur in the Qur‘ān. After each explanation the translator has added some verses of the Qur‘ān showing the usage of the particular Name in question. It should also be noted that the author, may Allāh have mercy upon him, has only mentioned those Names that occur in the Qur‘ān and these come to a total of eighty-nine in his view. Additional Names mentioned in the Qur‘ān have been added from the work of ibn ‘Uthaymīn, Qawa‘idu-l-Mublā fī Sifāt-Allāhi wa Asmā‘ ihi-l-Ḥusnā, bringing the total to one hundred and three

Before proceeding to the treatise it would be beneficial to present some general principles with regards the Names of Allāh, the Mighty and Magnificent.\(^5\)

[1.] All of Allāh’s Names are Beautiful and Perfect

This is because they comprise perfect descriptions and attributes that contain absolutely no defect, they do not even suggest the mere possibility of a deficiency.

\[\text{وَبَلِيَّةُ أَلْبَانَمَ مَلَائِكَةَ} \]

To Allāh belong the most beautiful and perfect

Names...

[al-A‘rāf (7): 180]

[II.] The Names of Allāh are proper names and descriptions

They are proper Names with respect to their referring to the Essence or Person of Allāh and descriptions with respect to the meanings they carry. Allāh, the Exalted says,

\text{وَهُوَ الْعَفَّارُ الرَّحِيمُ}

He is the Ever Forgiving, the Most Merciful

[al-Aḥqāf (46): 8]

\text{وَرَبِّيَ الْعَفَّارُ دُوَّارَ الرَّحِمَةِ}

Your Lord is the Ever Forgiving, possessing Mercy

[al-Kahf (18): 58]

Hence the second verse proves that the Most Merciful is one who possesses and is described with mercy. There also exists a consensus of the linguists that the term ‘one who knows’ (‘alim) is only given to one who has knowledge, ‘the one who sees’ (sami) is only given to one who sees and so on.
[III.] If a Name of Allāh points to a description that is Transitive

It is necessary to affirm three matters:

1. That particular Name
2. The Attribute that the Name points to.
3. The ruling and necessary implications contained [in the mention of that Name]

This is why the scholars stated that the prescribed punishment for highway robbers is lifted if they repent, based upon the saying of Allāh,

إِلاَّ أَلَّا أَدُّعُوٰنَ لَكُمْ بَلْ أَنْ فَيَدْرُي رُسُلُ أَنَّهُمْ أَعْلَمُوا
ۚ أَلِيَّ رَبُّ عَفُوٰنَ رَحِيمٌ

...except for those who repent before you gain power over them. Know that Allāh is Ever Forgiving, Most Merciful.

[al-Mā'idah (5): 34]

This is because the necessary implications of these two Names is that Allāh has forgiven them their sins and shown them mercy by lifting the application of the prescribed punishment upon them.

Similarly the Name, as-Sāmi (the All-Hearing) necessitates that you affirm this Name, the Attribute of hearing and the necessary implication that He hears everything, open and secret

6 Transitive: expressing an action thought of passing over to, and effect on some person or thing; taking a direct object: said of certain words.
If the Name is not Transitive then it is only necessary to affirm the first two matters mentioned above. For example the Name, al-Hayy (the Living), it is only necessary to affirm this Name and its corresponding Attribute of life.

[iv.] The Names of Allāh can only be known through revelation

This is because there is no way of the intellect independently coming to know of them. Allāh, the Exalted says,

\[
\text{إِنَّ السَّمَعَ وَالْبصَرَ وَالْغَدْوَدُ كَأَيُّهَا الْكَانِ عَنْهُمَّ مَسْتَفْوَى}

Do not pursue what you have no knowledge of, indeed the hearing, the sight and the hearts will all be questioned.

[Al-Isrā’ (17): 36]

[v.] The Names of Allāh are not limited to a particular number

This is due to the authentic ḥadīth of ibn Mas‘ūd reported by Aḥmad and others in which the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) said,

I ask you by every one of Your Names with which You have named Yourself, or which You have revealed in Your Book, or taught to anyone of Your creation, or which You have kept to Yourself in the knowledge of the unseen.

It is not possible to confine those Names that Allāh has kept with Him in the knowledge of the unseen to a particular number or to encompass them. As for the ḥadīth which mentions ninety-nine Names, its meaning is that whosoever memorises, understands and implements in his daily life, this number of Names will enter Paradise.

A warning against figurative interpretation of the Names and Attributes

Imām ‘Alī bin al-Murtaḍā al-Yamānī said,

‘...The second matter is accusing the religion of deficiency by rejecting the texts and the outward expressions of the Attributes (dhawāhir), and removing them from their real and literal meanings to metaphorical meanings without a clear and unequivocal proof which would indicate the establishment for the necessity of ta’wil (figurative interpretation). In this, those who do this merely blindly follow some of the Aḥlu-l-Kalām (people of theological rhetoric) in principles that they themselves have not agreed upon. The most vile of these is the madh-hab of the Qarāmīta, the Bāṭiniyyah, in their ta’wil of the Beautiful Names of Allāh and their negation of them under the pretext of absolving Allāh of anthropomorphism and hence actualising tawḥīd [in their eyes], claiming that to apply them [to Allāh] is tashbih (anthropomorphism). These went to the extent of saying that He is not present/existing and neither is He absent/non-existing...

From the necessary matters [of this Religion] is to take the Beautiful Names of Allāh mentioned in His Book by way of glorification and supreme praise of Him. Do you not see that ar-Rahmān and ar-Rahīm, for example, are recited in every prayer and mentioned in every Muslim gathering, all of them being agreed that these two Names are from the best ways of praising Allāh, the Exalted, and drawing close to Him through glorifying Him by them...?

So what is to prevent affirming the Attribute of Mercy (Rahma) and its likes that have been affirmed by Allāh and His Messenger (ﷺ) in the same way, coupled with negating the deficiencies that are associated with the attributes of the creation? What is there that would prevent doing the same with every Attribute that the Lord is described with and the creation is also described with? He, the Magnificent and Exalted, is described by them in the most perfect way, removed from all defects, whereas the servant is described by them as befits him with his defects and weaknesses. It is in this way that Aḥlu-s-Sunnah understood the negation of tashbih, not by negating the Attributes as done by those who negate His Attributes (Mu'attila).

From the matters that indicate the futility of ta'wil is that the Mu'tazila dislike the ta'wil that the Ash'arīs make of the All-Wise (al-Ḥakim). The Ash'arīs dislike the ta'wil that some of the Mu'tazila make of the All-Hearing (as-Samī') and the All-Seeing (al-Bāṣīr). Aḥlu-s-Sunnah dislike the ta'wil that both parties make of ar-Rahmān, ar-Rahīm and their likes. All these groups dislike the ta'wil made by the Qarāmiṭa. Hence it is obligatory to affirm what Allāh affirmed for His noble Self without ta'wil and taṭīl.

The opinion that [affirming the] literal meaning of these Names is disbelief and misguidance, that the Companions and the righteous Salaf did not understand their meanings, or that they did understand them but did not carry out the obligation of advising mankind of their true meaning, is not permissible due to two matters:

1. The necessary and unequivocal reasoning that the nature [of man] dictates that any matter of this kind would have had a warning against it arising from the Messenger of Allāh (ﷺ) and his Companions, and it would have been more frequent and greater than their warning from the Lying Dajjāl. It is not possible due to their complete intellects and religion that they would leave their children, women, and their general masses listening to something related to Allāh whose literal meaning is disbelief and remain silent about it. Were they to leave this warning then certainly they would have left warning against the Dajjāl, for the nullification of His Lordship is greater and more severe according to the intellect.

Do you not see that when the those given to theological rhetoric (mutakallimin) came to believe in the repugnance of the literal meanings of these texts, their warning against them became frequent as did their ta’wil of them? They wrote volumes concerning this, they aroused the negligent, they taught the ignorant, they declared the disbelief of those who opposed them and they made it widespread amongst the Muslims, indeed the whole world. However this would have more rightfully been the duty of the Master of the Messengers, the Precedent of the Predecessors and the Helpers of the Religion (ﷺ), if their claim were indeed true.

2. It is established that any addition in the Religion is forbidden, so it is not correct that the Shari‘ah be silent about something that is required from a text which is from the fundamentals of the Religion. Islām is to be followed, not invented, and this is why it declares anyone who rejects any of the pillars of the religion to be a disbeliever because they are known by necessity. So it is more deserving and proper that the Sharī‘ah not come with something with which is repeatedly recited and [outwardly] false, yet not caution us about it, especially since what is heard is false and is well-known in all the Books of Allāh. In conclusion there is nothing that occurs that would oppose [the literal meanings of the texts] by way of the Sharī‘ah or intellect and would necessitate ta’wīl.

Al-Rāzī acknowledged in his book, al-Arba‘īn - and he is from the greatest opponents of Aḥlu-s-Sunnah - that all of the Heavenly Books came with the mention of Allāh’s Attributes - and Allāh did not mention a single text that He is to be absolved of the Attribute of Mercy, Forbearance, Wisdom and their likes. So the matter is clear even though he may not accept it.’

1 Ḥūr al-Ḥaq ‘alā-t-Khalq (pp. 219+) of al-Yamānī with summary, as quoted in Sharh Kitāb al-Tawḥīd min Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī (1/86+) of Shaykh ‘Abdullāh al-Ghunaymān.
Biography of the Author

- He is Abū ‘Abdullāh ‘Abdu-r-Raḥmān bin Nāṣir bin ‘Abdullāh bin Nāṣir Āli Sa’dī from the Tamīmī tribe. He was born in the city of ‘Unayzah, Qaṣīm on the 12th Muḥarram, 1307H. His mother passed away when he was but four years old and his father when he was seven. Hence he grew up as an orphan but despite this he had a goodly upbringing.

- He was extremely intelligent and had memorised the Qur’ān by the age of eleven after which he devoted himself to studying under the scholars of his land. He strove in his studies until he excelled in all of the various Islāmic sciences and by the age of twenty-three he was already teaching. He devoted himself entirely to learning and teaching until he became the leading religious authority in the land, with students of knowledge flocking to him from all regions.

- He studied under a host of the leading scholars of his time, from amongst whom was Shaykh Ibrāhīm bin Ḥamd bin Jāsir, the author would praise him for his extensive memorisation of ḥadīth, his piety and his love of the poor. Many times he would witness a poor person coming to Shaykh Ibrāhīm, and the shaykh removing an article of his clothing and giving it to him, despite he himself needing it and being quite poor. He also studied under Shaykh Muḥammad bin ‘Abdu-l-Karīm ash-Shibl, Shaykh Ṣāliḥ bin ‘Uthmān ṣ the Judge of ‘Unayzah, Shaykh Sa’b al-Quwayyirī, Muḥammad al-Amin ash-Shanqīṭī and others.

- The author, may Allāh have mercy upon him, was known for his piety, excellent manners and humility before the young, the old, the rich and the poor. He would always spend some of his time in meeting those who wished to meet him and was kindly to the poor, orphans and strangers, helping them to the best of his ability. He was an excellent teacher and speaker and would give presents to those of his students who memorised the texts that were taught to them.

- The author was an expert in fiqḥ and usūl al-fiqḥ, initially he was Ḥanbalī in madh’hab, as were all of his teachers, his first work on fiqḥ was written in poem form upon the Ḥanbali School which he also commented. He studied the works of ibn Taymiyyah and ibn al-Qayyim extensively and benefited enormously from them. As he progressed in his studies he no longer restricted himself to the Ḥanbalī School but rather followed the course he believed to be proven by the strongest evidences. However, he would never censure or look down upon those who followed a particular school of thought. He was also an expert in tafsīr, having read many works of tafsīr and studied it under his teachers and he actually authored a tafsīr himself. All who heard him speak when explaining the Book of Allāh would wish that he never stop due to his inspiring manner of speech and the great benefits that he derived from its verses.

- He authored a number of works amongst which were Tafsīr al-Karīm ar-Rahmān, which he completed in the year 1344H, and

- The author passed away in ‘Unayzah in the year 1376H, may Allāh have mercy upon him.
Explanation to the Beautiful and Perfect Names of Allāh

A large number of the Beautiful Names of Allāh are repeated manifold in the Qur‘ān as demanded by the occasion and it is necessary to explain their meanings in a succinct and comprehensive way. So we say:

الرَّبُّ

Ar-Rabb (The Lord and Cherisher)

This name has been repeatedly mentioned in many verses.

Ar-Rabb is the one who nurtures and sustains all of His servants through regulating and governing their affairs and granting them all types of favours and blessings. More specifically, He is the one who nurtures and sustains his sincere friends by correcting and purifying their hearts, souls and manners. This is why their supplications are frequently made with this noble Name because they seek this specific nurturing.

وَرَبِّكَ
العفُورَ دُوāً الرَّحْمَةَ لَوْ تَأْجَزْهُم مِّيَا خَسَسَبَوْالعَجْلُ لَهُمْ
العذَابَ بِلَّ أَهْمَرْ مَوَعَدَ أَنْ يُجَدَّوْا إِنْ دَوَى هُمْ مُؤَبِّلًا

And your Rabb is the Ever-Forgiving, Owner of Mercy. Were He to call them to account for what they had earned, surely He would have hastened on their punishment. Instead they have their appointed time beyond which they will find no escape.

[Al-Kahf (18): 58]

الله
Allāh

He is the one and only deity, the one who is worshipped and the one who deserves to be worshipped by the whole of His creation. This is due to the perfect and beautiful godly Attributes that He is described with.
Allāh! There is none worthy of worship but He, the Living, the Self-Sustaining. He is not subject to drowsiness or. To Him belongs whatsoever is in the heavens and the earth. Who is there that can intercede with Him except with His Permission? He Knows what is before them and what is behind them, but they cannot encompass anything of His Knowledge except that which He Wills. His Footstool encompasses the heavens and the earth and he feels no fatigue in preserving them. He is the Most High, the Most Great.

[al-Baqarah (2): 255]
al-Malik (The King)

al-Mālik (The Master and Owner)

Alladhī lahu-l-Mulk (the One to Whom belongs the dominion)

He is described with the Attribute of being the Master and Owner. These are Attributes describing His grandeur, glory and majesty, omnipotence and His governance and regulation of the affairs. He is the one who directs all of the affairs to do with creation, command and recompense. To Him belongs the whole of creation, all of it is subservient to Him, owned by Him and in continuous need of Him.

فَمَعَالِي اللَّهُ أَلْمَلِك أَلْحَق وَلَا عَمِّالُ بَالْقَسَرِ إِن مِّن فَسَلَى أَن يُقَصِّى إِلَّا يَلِكَ وَحِيْهُ وَقَلْ رَبِّ زَدْنِي عَلَمًا

Then High exalted be Allâh, al-Malik, the Truth. Do not be in haste with the Qur’ān before its revelation is completed to you and say, ‘My Lord! Increase me in knowledge.’

[Tā Ḥā (20): 114]
Say: O Al-fāh! Mālik of the kingdom, You give sovereignty to whom You will and You take sovereignty from whom You will. You exalt whom You will and You humiliate whom You will. In your Hand is [all] good, indeed You have power over all things.

[Ālī 'Imrān (3): 26]

Alladhi lahu-l-Mulk of the heavens and the earth! And Allāh is Witness over everything.

[al-Burūj (85): 9]

الواحدُ

al-Wāḥid

الأحدُ

al-‘Aḥad (The One)

He is the one who is singled out in all aspects of perfection such that nothing else shares with Hīm in these. It is obligatory upon the servants to single Hīm out alone in belief, saying and action by acknowledging His unrestricted perfection, His uniqueness and singling Him out alone for all types of worship.

‘O two companions of the prison! Are many different lords better or Allāh, al-Wāḥid, the Irresistible?'

He knows the affairs of the whole of creation, of the past, the present and the future. There is absolutely nothing that is hidden from Him.

Verily Allâh [alone] has the knowledge of the Hour, He sends down the rain and knows what is in the wombs. No soul knows what it will earn tomorrow and no soul knows in what land it will die. Indeed Allâh is ‘Alîm, Khabîr.

[Luqman (31): 34]
O Mankind! We have created you from a male and a female and made you into nations and tribes that you may know each other. Verily, the most noble of you in the Sight of Allah is the most pious and God-Fearing of you. Indeed Allah is 'Alim, Khabir.

[al-Ma'idah (5): 50]

Therefore He has created nothing out of mere frivolity and He has legislated nothing that is vain and of no use.

He is the one to whom belongs judgement in the beginning and the end. He has three areas of ruling that nothing else has a share in: He rules over His servants with respect to His law, His decree and His recompense.

Wisdom is to put something in its correct place.

For those who believe not in the Hereafter is an evil description and for Allāh is the highest description. He is the Almighty, al-Ḥakīm.

[an-Nahl (16): 60]

It is He who is the only deity in the heaven and on the earth. He is al-Ḥakīm, the All-Knowing.

الرَّوُفُ
ar-Ra’ūf (the Kind)

الوَهَابُ

All of these Names are close in meaning and all of them point to describing the Lord with mercy, generosity and kindness. They point to the great expanse of His mercy and gifts that encompass all that is existence, being granted in accordance to the dictates of His wisdom. The believers have been specifically singled out for this and they are granted a goodly and the best portion of this as Allāh said,

وَسَعَتْ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ فَسَأَلَهَا لِلَّذِينَ يَتَّقونَ

My mercy encompasses all things and I shall decree it for those who have taqwā.

[al-‘A‘rāf (7): 156]

All blessings and the various aspects of beneficence are from the effects of His mercy, generosity and kindness just as all beneficence in this world and in the Hereafter is from the effects of His mercy.

Verily, we used to call on Him [Alone] before. Verily He is al-Barr, ar-Rahīm.

[at-Ṭūr (52): 28]

بَلَىٰ أَنَّ ٱلْإِنْسَٰنَ مَاعُورٌ ۚ لَهُ مَهِيدٌ الْسَّكِينُ
O man! What has made you careless concerning your Lord, al-Karīm.

[al-Infitār (82): 6]

[al-Baqarah (2): 137]

قُلْ
أَوَيْنُظَرُ اللَّهُ بِعِينِ عَبْدِهِ؟ ۚ لِلَّذِينَ آتَوْا عَنْدَنَا إِنْفَقَةً وَتَبَيَّنَتْ
نَغْرَايِنَّهمْ تَعْقُبَهَا أَنَّهُمْ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَأَزْوَاجُهُمْ مَطْهَكِرَةً ۚ وَرَضْوَةَ مَرَّتْ بِاللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ بَصِيرٌ بِالْبُصُورَ

[Āli ʾImrān (3): 15]

ۖ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ نَفَسُ الْمَوْتِ يَفْضِلُ بَيْنَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ بِبَصِيرَةٍ

al-Qâdir (All-Powerful, the Able)

The one who has complete and perfect power and ability. By His power He brought everything into existence, by it He arranges all the affairs, by it He fashioned and perfected the creation, by it He brings to life and causes to die, by it He will resurrect the servants for their recompense - rewarding the one who did good with His good and the one who worked evil with His Hellfire. The one who, when He wills a thing to be, merely says,

كن فيكون

Be! And it is

By His power and ability he turns the hearts and directs them to whatsoever He Wills and Desires.

ولكلٍ وجهٍ معلوم

فأصبحوا الخير وأن يكونوا يأخذ بكم الله جميعاً

إن الله على كل شيء قادر

For every nation there is a direction which they face, so hasten towards all that is good. Wherever you may be, Allâh will bring you together, Allâh is Qâdir over all things.
[What is the matter with you?] When a single disaster smites you, although you smote (your enemies) with one twice as great, you say, ‘From where does this come to us?’ Say, ‘It is from yourselves [because of your evil deeds]’. And Allāh is Qādir over all things.

[Ālī ’Imrān (3): 165]

اللطيف

al-Lātīf (the Most Subtle, the Kind)

The one whose knowledge encompasses all the secret and hidden matters, the one who is aware of all that is hidden [in the deepest depths of the heavens and the earth] and is aware of everything down to the most minute and finest detail. The one who is kind to his believing servants, guiding them to that which would benefit them and aid them via means that they are not aware, this by His kindness and beneficence. It also carries the meaning of al-Khabīr and ar-Ra’ūf.
No vision can grasp Him, but His Grasp is over all vision. He is al-Laṭīf, the All-Aware.

\[al-An‘ām\ (6): 103\]

Do you not see that Allāh sends down the water from the sky and then the earth becomes green? Indeed Allāh is Laṭīf, the All-Aware.

\[al-Hajj\ (22): 63\]

The one who is All-Knowing of His servants and sufficient for those who put their trust in Him. The one who recompenses his servants with either good or bad based upon His wisdom and knowledge of the finest details of their actions.

\[\text{When you are greeted with a greeting, greet in return with what is better than it or at least return it equally. Allāh is Ḥasib of all things.}\]

\[\text{[an-Nisā'\ (4): 86]}\]
Those who convey the Message of Allāh and fear Him and none save Him, sufficient is Allāh as Ḥasīb.

[al-Ahzāb (33): 39]

الرَّقِيبُ

ar-Raqīb (the All-Watcher)

The one who sees what is hidden in the hearts, the one who charges every soul for what it earned, the one who preserves all that is in creation and regulates them with the best of organisation and the most complete and perfect planning.

O Mankind! Be dutiful to your Lord Who created you from a single person, and from Him He created his wife, and from them both He created many men and women. Fear Allāh through whom you demand your mutual rights, and [do not cut the relations of] the womb [kinship]. Surely Allāh is Raqīb over you.

\[\text{[an-Nisā'}(4): 1]\]

الحافظُ

al-Ḥāfīz (The Guardian)

الحافظُ

al-Ḥāfīz (the Guardian)

The one who protects and preserves what He created and whose knowledge encompasses all that He brought into existence. The one who protects His friends from falling into sins and the destructive matters. The one who is kind to them during their periods of activity and rest. The one who accounts the actions of the servants and their rewards.

وَلَقَدْ صَدَّقُوا عَلَيْهِمْ إِلَّا إِلَيْهِ طَنَّهُ فَأَتَابَّعُوهُ إِلَّا

فَرِيقًا مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَمَا سَكَنَ لَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مَنْ سَلَطَنَ

إِلَّا لِيَلْعَبُّ مِنْ يَوْمِينَ يَكْبَرُ مِنْ هُوَمِهِمْ هِيَ شُكَرُ وَرَبِّكَ

عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَفِيظًا

And Iblīs did prove true his thought about them, and they followed him, all except a group of the true believers. For Iblīs had no authority over them - except that We might test him who believes in the Hereafter from him who is in doubt about it. And your Lord is Ḥafīz over everything.

[Sābā' (34): 20-21]

قَالَ هَلَآ أَمْكَنْكُمْ عَلَيْهِ إِلَّآ أَحْضَرْكُمْ أَمْكَنْكُمْ عَلَ أَخِيٍّ مِن
قَبْلٍ قَالَ ﷺ مُحْيَيْنِا

He said, ‘How will my trusting him to your care be different from entrusting his brother before?’ However Allāh is the best Ḥafīz.

[Yūnus (12): 64]

المُحيطُ

al-Muḥīṭ (The Encompassing)

The one who has knowledge of everything, has power over everything, his mercy encompasses everything and He is dominant over everything.

إِنَّ مَسَّكُمْ حَسَنَةً سُوَّاهُمْ وَإِنْ نَصِيبَكُمْ سَيَنَّهُ يُفْرِجُوا
بِهَا وَإِنَّ تَصِيرْتُوا وَتَنَافَوْا لَا يُصِيرْكُمْ كَيْدُهُمْ شَيْئًا
إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَمَإِلْ يُعَمَّلُونَ مُحيطًا

If good befalls you it grieves them, but if some evil overtakes you they rejoice at it. But if you remain patient and become of the God-fearing, not the least harm will their cunning do to you. Allāh is Muḥīṭ of what they do.

[Ālī ʾImrān (3): 120]
And be not like those who come out of their homes boastfully to be seen of men, and hinder from the Path of Allāh. Allāh is Muḥīṭ of all that they do.

[al-Anfāl (8): 47]

And He is al-Qāhir, above His servants. He sends guardians [writing all of your deeds] over you, until when death approaches one of you, Our Messengers take his soul and they never neglect their duty.

\[ \text{[al-An'âm (6): 61]} \]

So think not that Allâh will fail to keep His promise to His Messengers. Certainly! Allâh is Almighty, Owner of Retribution. On the Day when the earth will be changed to another earth and so will the heavens, and they [all creatures] will appear before Allâh, the One, al-Qâfhâr.

\[ \text{[Ibrahim (14): 47-48]} \]

\text{المُقِيتُ}

\text{al-Muqît (The Powerful)}

The one who provides everything that is in existence with what would strengthen it, who provides it its nourishment and directs it howsoever He wills in accordance to His wisdom and praise.

الوَكِيلُ

al-Wakīl (The Disposer of Affairs, the One Who is relied upon)

The one who has the responsibility to dispose the affairs of the creation in accordance to His knowledge, perfect power and all-encompassing wisdom. The one who looks after His friends and makes the good easy for them, preserves them from evil and suffices for them in all of their affairs. Therefore the one who takes Him as one to be relied upon, He suffices him, Allāh is the Friend of those who believe, He guides them from the darknesses into the light.

[al-Baqarah (2): 257]

Such is Allāh your Lord! None has the right to be worshipped but He, the Creator of all things. So worship Him Alone, and He is the Wakīl over everything.

\[ \text{[al-An'ām (6): 102]} \]

\text{وَتَوَكَّلْ فَيَدْعُوٰ إِلَيْهِ وَسَكَتَّ وَلَكَ وَكِيلَ} \\
\]
And put your trust in Allāh, for Allāh is sufficient as Wakīl.

\[ \text{[al-Abzāb (33): 3]} \]

\text{ذُوِ الجَلَالِ وَالإِكْرَامِ} \\
Dhu-l-Jalālī wa-l-Ikrām (The One possessing Majesty and Honour)

Meaning the one possessing greatness and grandeur, possessing mercy and generosity. The one who shows beneficence in both its general and specific aspects. The one who honours His friends and close ones - those who glorify, exalt and love Him.

\text{كُلّ مَا عَلِيّهِ فَانِ} \\
\]
Everything in the earth will perish. And the Face of your Lord, Dhu-l-Jalālī wa-l-Ikrām, will abide forever.

\[ \text{[ar-Rahmān (55): 27]} \]

\text{بَنْبَرَكَ أَسْمَاهُ ذِي الجَلَالِ وَالإِكْرَامِ} \\
\]
Blessed be the name of your Lord, Dhu-l-Jalālī wa-l-Ikrām.

\[ \text{[ar-Rahmān (55): 78]} \]
The one who loves His Prophets and Messengers and those who follow them, and they in turn love Him - He is more beloved to them than anything else. Their hearts have been filled with love of Him, their tongues are constantly moist with praising Him and their hearts are always drawn to Him in love, sincerity and repentance.

And ask forgiveness from your Lord and turn to Him in repentance. Verily my Lord is the Most Merciful, Wudūd.

[Hūd (11): 90]

And He is Ever Forgiving, al-Wudūd.

[al-Burāj (85): 14]
الفَتَاحُ

al-Fattāḥ (The Judge, The Opener)

The one who will judge between His servants through His laws of the Sharī‘ah, His laws of decree and His laws of recompense. The one who opens the eyes of the those who are truthful and sincere through His kindness. The one who opens their hearts so that they can know Him, love Him and repent to Him. He opens the doors of mercy and sustenance for His servants and provides them the means of attaining both the good in this life and the Hereafter,

ما يَفْحِجُ اللَّهُ النَّاسِ مِنْ رَحْمَةٍ فَلاَ مَيْسِكَ لَهَا
وَما يَفْحِجُ فَلاَ مَيْسِكَ لَهُ لوْمَهُ بَعْدُ

Whatever mercy Allāh may grant to mankind, none can withhold it; and whatever He withholds, none can grant it thereafter.

[Fāṭir (35): 2]

قُلْ

يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا نَفْسَيْنِ يَفْحِجَ بَيْنَنَا الْحَقَّ وَهُوَ الْفَتَاحُ الْعَلِيمُ

Say: Our Lord will assemble us all together [on the Day of Resurrection], then He will judge between them. He is al-Fattāḥ, the All-Knowing.

[Saba’ (34): 26]
He said: My Lord! Verily, my people have belied me. Therefore judge You between me and them, and save me and the those of the believers who are with me.

[ash-Shu'ara' (26): 117-118]

ارْضَاقُ

ar-Razzāq (The Provider)

The one who provides for all of His servants, there is not a creature on the earth except that Allāh provides for it. His providing for His servants is of two types:

1) The general provision which extends to the righteous and the sinner, the first and the last. This is the provision that is required by the bodies.

2) The specific provision - this being granted to the hearts, nourishing them with knowledge and faith. Also the lawful provision that has been appointed for the benefit of the religion, this being specific to the believers and apportioned in accordance to their differing levels and what His wisdom and mercy dictate.
Say: Come I will recite to you what your Lord has prohibited you from: Join not anything in worship with Him; be good and dutiful to your parents; kill not your children because of poverty - We provide sustenance for you and for them; come not near shameful sins whether openly or secretly; kill not anyone who Allâh has forbidden except for a just cause. This He has commanded you that you may understand.

\[\text{[al-An`âm (6): 151]}\]

I created man and jinn only that they may worship Me. I seek not any provisions from them nor do I ask that they feed Me. Indeed Allâh is ar-Razzâq, Owner of Strength, the Powerful.

\[\text{[ad-Dhâriyât (51): 56-58]}\]
The one who judges between His Servants in this life and the Hereafter with His justice and fairness. He will not oppress anyone to the extent of an atom's weight and none will be made to carry the encumbrance of another. No servant will be recompensed in a way that is greater that the magnitude of his sin, he will be given only what he deserves. Not a single persons right will be denied him, He is the Just in His regulation and decree,

Indeed My Lord is upon the Straight Path.

Hûd (11): 56

.say: I am on clear proof from my Lord, but you deny [the truth]. I do not have what you are impatient for (i.e. the Punishment). The judgement is only for Allâh, He declares the truth, and He is the best of judges.

Al-`An`âm (6): 57
Jāmi‘u-n-Nās (The Gatherer of Mankind)

The one who will gather mankind on the Day about which there is no doubt. He will gather their actions and provisions and will not leave out a single thing, be it large or small, except that He will take it to account. He will gather together the disintegrated remains of those who have died, the early and later by His perfect power and all-encompassing knowledge, [and resurrect them].

Our Lord! Indeed it is You who are Jāmi‘u-n-Nās on the Day about which there is no doubt! Verily Allāh never breaks His promise!

[Ālī ‘Imrān (3): 9]

I swear by the Day of Resurrection. And I swear by the self-reproaching soul. Does man think that We shall not assemble his bones? Yes, We are able to put together in perfect order the very tips of his fingers.

[al-Qiyāmah (75): 1-4] الْحَيِّ

al-Ḥayy (The Living)

الْقِيَّمُ

al-Qayyūm (The Self-Sustaining)

The one who has perfect power, existing in and of Himself and not dependant upon anyone else. The sustainer of the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth, the one who regulates their affairs and provisions. The name al-Ḥayy includes all of the Attributes of His Self and the name al-Qayyūm includes all the Attributes of His Actions.

اللَّهُ اッِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْعُلِيُّ الْقَبْلُ

Allāh! There is no deity worthy of worship but Him, al-Ḥayy, al-Qayyūm.

[Āli ʾImrān (3): 1]

وَعَسَى الْوَجْهُ الْحَيِّ الْقِيَّمُ وَهَدَى نَابِيَّا مِنْ حَمُّلَ عَظْلَمَا

All faces shall be humbled before [Allāh], al-Ḥayy, al-Qayyūm. And the one who carried the burden of wrong-doing shall be in complete loss!

[Tā Ḥā (20): 111]
The Light of the heavens and the earth, the one who illuminates the hearts of the Gnostics with knowledge of Him, faith in Him and His guidance. He is the one who has lit the heavens and the earth with lights that He has placed therein. His veil is light and were He to uncover it, the sublimity and splendour of His Face would burn everything of the creation that His Sight fell upon.

Allāh is the Light of the heavens and the earth. The parable of His Light is as if there were a niche and within it a lamp, the lamp is in a glass, and the glass as if it were a brilliant star, lit from a blessed tree, an olive, neither of the east or of the west, whose oil would almost glow forth [of itself] even though no fire touches it. Light upon light! Allāh guides to His Light whom He Wills. Allāh sets forth parables for mankind, and Allāh Knows everything.

[an-Nūr (24): 35]
بَدْيِعُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالأَرْضِ

Badi‘ u-S-Sama‘ati wa-l-Ard (The Originator of the heavens and the earth)

Meaning their creator and originator, done so in the best of ways, with the most marvellous of creations, all in amazing and perfect order, structure and harmony.

بَدْيِعُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ

إِذَا قَضَىَ أمرَهُ أُقَامَ لَهُ كَنْ فَيَكُونُ

Badi‘ u-S-Sama‘ati wa-l-Ard, when he decrees a thing to be, He merely says: Be! - and it is.

[al-Baqarah (2): 117]

بَدْيِعُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَن يَكُونُ لَهُ وَلَوْ تَكُنَّ لِلَّهِ صَنَاحَةٌ وَخَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

Badi‘ u-S-Sama‘ati wa-l-Ard, how can He have children when He has no consort? He created all things and He Knows everything.

[al-An'am (6): 101] القابضُ

al-Qābiḍ (The Taker)

الباستُ

Al-Bāṣīṭ (The Extender)

The one who takes the provisions and souls, the one who gives provisions freely and gives [life to] the hearts - all of this in compliance to His wisdom and mercy.

Who will lend to Allāh a goodly loan so that He may multiply it for him many times? And it is Allāh who takes and increases [your provisions] and unto Him you shall return.

[al-Baqarah (2): 245]

And they made not a just estimate of Allāh such as is due to Him. On the Day of Resurrection His Hand will grasp the whole of the earth and the heavens will be rolled up in His Right Hand.
Glorified be He, High is He above all that they associate as partners with Him!

[az-Zumar (39): 67]

المعطي
al-Mu‘ṭi (The Giver)

المانع
al-Māni‘ (The Preventer)

There is none who can prevent what He gives and none who can give what He prevents. Every thing that can bring about good or benefit is sought and desired from Him. He is the one who gives to whomever He wills and prevents from whomever He wills, all of this in accordance to His wisdom and mercy.
الشَهِيدُ

ash-Shāhīd (The Witness)

The one who is aware of everything. The one who hears every voice in existence - the loud and quiet. The one who sees every-thing in existence - the insignificant and significant, the small and large. The one whose knowledge encompasses everything. The one who will testify for or against His servants for what they did.

قُلْ أَيُّ مَتَّىٰ أَكْبَرُ شَهِيدٌ فَلَيْلَةَ شَهِيدٌ نَّيْنَ وَبِيْنَكُمْ وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْهِ

القُرْآنَ لَنَزْدَرَكُمْ بِهِ وَمَنْ يَلْعَزَ أَيْتَكُمْ

Say: What thing is the greatest witness? Say: Allāh is Shahīd between you and I; this Qur’ān has been revealed to me that I may warn therewith - you and whomsoever it may reach.

[al-An’ām (6): 19]

هُوَ الَّذِينَ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُوْلًا بِالْهُدَىٰ وَالْإِنْصَافِ

اللَّهِ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ كَفَّارُهُ وَكَفَّنَى بِالْأَهْلِ السَّهِيْدَةِ

It is He Who sent His Messenger with the guidance and the Religion of Truth that he make it prevail over all religions. And sufficient is Allāh as a Shahīd.

[al-Fath (48): 28]
al-Mubdi' (The Starter)

al-Mu‘id (The Recaller, The One Who repeats creation)

Allāh says,

He is the One Who started the creation and He will repeat it

[Yūnus (10): 4]

He began their creation in order to test them as to which of them was best in action then He will recall them to reward those who did good and punish those who did evil for their evil. Similarly He is the one who began by creating each individual thing and then continuously repeats it.

Is not He [better than your false gods] Who originates creation and shall thereafter repeat it, and Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth?

[an-Naml (27): 64]
Allāh originates the creation and then repeats it.

[al-Burūj (85): 13]

الفَعَّالُ لَمَّا يُرِيدُ

al-Fa‘ālu-l-Limā Yurīd (The One Who does what He Wills)

This is from the perfection of His power and the implementation of His will and decree that anything that He wishes to do,
He does and there is none to prevent Him or protest. He has no assistant or supporter in anything that He does, rather when He Wills a thing to be He merely says,

كنَّ فيكونُ

Be! - and it is.

Despite the fact that He does what He wills, His will acts in accordance to His wisdom and praise. He is described with per-flect ability and power, and with the implementation of His will and He is described with complete and all-encompassing wisdom.

فَأْلَمْ أَلَّمَ يَشَاءَ فَخَلَقتَنَّكُمْ

al-Ārāf (7): 189

85
As for those who are wretched, they will be in the Fire, therein is violent exhaling and inhaling for them. They will dwell therein for all the time that the heavens and the earth endured except as your Lord Will. Indeed your Lord is Faʻālu-l-Limā Yurīd.

[Ḥūd (11): 106-107]

الغَنِّي
al-Ghanī (The Self-Sufficient, The Rich)

المُغْنِي
al-Mughnī (The Sufficient, Enricher)

He is Self-Sufficient completely and unrestrictedly, deference is given to His perfection and the perfection of His Attributes. He has absolutely no deficiency of any kind, it is not possible that He be anything but self-sufficient, for self-sufficiency is from the necessary consequences of His Person. Similarly it is not possible for Him to be anything but the Creator, the All-Powerful, the Provider and the Bestower of good. He is not in need of anything or anyone, He is the Self-Sufficient in whose Hand lie the treasures of the heavens and the earth, and the treasures of this life and the Hereafter. He suffices for the whole of His creation, and is sufficient for the believers of His creation in that He confers upon their hearts nurturing knowledge and the realities of faith.
-kind words and forgiving faults are better than giving in charity. Allāh is the Ghanī, the Forbearing.

[al-Baqarah (2): 263]

And your Lord is al-Ghanī, full of Mercy. If He Will He could destroy you and in your place make who He Will to be successors, just as He raised you from the seed of another people.

[al-An‘ām (6): 133]

al-Ḥalīm (The Forbearing)

The one who bestows favours, both outward and inward, lavishly to His creation despite their many acts of disobedience and transgression. He is gentle upon those who disobey him and in censuring them so that perchance they may repent and gives them respite so that they may become penitent.
And know that Allāh knows what is in your minds, so fear Him. And know that Allāh is Ever Forgiving, Ḥalīm.

[al-Baqarah (2): 235]

If you lend to Allāh a goodly loan He will multiply it for you and will forgive you. Allāh is the Appreciative, Ḥalīm.

[at-Taghābun (64): 17]
ash-Shākīr (The Recogniser and Rewarder of good)

ash-Shakūr (The Appreciative)

The one who recognises and rewards the small quantity of actions and the one who forgives the large quantity of sins. He is the one who multiplies the rewards of His sincere servants manifold without any measure. He is the one who recognises and rewards those who give thanks to Him and remembers the one who remembers Him. Whosoever seeks to get close to Him by doing any righteous action, Allāh draws closer to Him by a greater degree.

Indeed as-Ṣafā and al-Marwa are two of the symbols of Allāh. So it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or ‘Umrah to perform the walking between them. And whoever does good voluntarily, then Allāh is Shākīr, the All-Knowing.

[al-Baqarah (2): 158]
Indeed those who recite the Book of Allāh, and establish the prayers and spend out of that which we have provided them, secretly and openly, hope for a sure trade-gain that will never perish. That He may pay them in full and give them even more out of His Grace. He is the Ever Forgiving, Shakūr.

[Fāṭir (35): 29-30]

القريب

al-Qarīb (The Close)

المجيب

al-Mujīb (The Answerer)

He, Exalted is He, is close to everybody, this closeness being of two types:

1) The general closeness which means His being close to everyone with respect to His knowledge, awareness, seeing, witnessing and encompassing.
2) The specific closeness which is specific to His worshippers, those who ask of Him and those who love Him. The reality of this type of closeness cannot be comprehended, all we can see is its resultant effects - His kindness to His servants, His aiding them and His making them to be firm upon the Straight Path.

From the consequences of this closeness is His answering those who supplicate to Him and His granting them the ability to be penitent. He is the One who answers, in a general sense, those who supplicate to Him whoever them may be, wherever they may be and whatever condition they may be in as He has promised. He is the One who answers, in a specific sense, those who love Him, those who imitate and follow His Shari‘ah. He is also the One who answers the one in dire need and those who have given up all hope of being answered by the creation and therefore their connection to Him has been strengthened in terms of love, hope and fear.

وإذَاسْأَلْتُ
عَبْرَاءَيْ عَنِّي فَإِلَيْ قَرْبِي أَحْيَبُ دُعَوَّةُ اللَّهِ إِذَا دَعَانُ
فَلَيْسَنَّ يَجْعَلُونَ إِلَيْنَا وَلَيْسُ بِمُوَلَّى لَهُمْ يَرْكُبُونَ

And when My slaves ask you concerning Me, I am indeed near to them. I respond to the invocations of the supplicant when He calls upon Me. So let them obey Me and believe in Me so that they may be led aright.

[al-Baqarah (2): 186]
And to the Thamūd We sent their brother Ṣāliḥ saying, ‘O my people! Worship Allāh besides whom there is no other deity. He brought you forth from the earth and settled you therein, then ask forgiveness of Him, and turn to Him in repentance. Certainly my Lord is Qarīb, Mujīb.’

[Hūd (11): 61]
The one who suffices His servants in everything that they are in need of. The one who suffices, in a specific sense, those who believe in Him, put their trust in Him and seek their worldly and religious needs from Him.

Allāh drove back those who disbelieved in their rage and they gained no advantage. Allāh sufficed for the believers in the fighting. Allāh is the Strong, the Almighty.

[al-Abzāb (33): 25]

Is not Allāh sufficient for His servant? Yet they try to frighten you with those who they worship besides Him! And whomsoever Allāh sends astray, for him there will be no guide.

[az-Zumar (39): 36]
al-Awwal (The First)
al-Ākhir (The Last)
al-Zāhir (The Manifest)
al-Bātin (The Inward)

The Prophet explained these in a succinct and clear way while addressing his Lord, ‘You are the First, there was none before You. You are the Last, there will be none after You. Your are the Manifest, there is nothing above You. You are the Inward, there is nothing close to you.’

He is the First, the Last, the Manifest and the Inward. He is the All-Knower of everything.

[al-Fātiha (3): 3] الواسع

al-Wāsiʿ (The Vast)

He is the one who is vast with respect to His Attributes and qualities and those things linked to them - this from the point of view that none can enumerate His praise as He deserves, rather He is as He has praised Himself. Vast in grandeur, authority and dominion, vast in bestowing grace and good, great in majesty and nobility.

The likeness of those who spend their wealth in the Way of Allāh, is as the likeness of a grain (of corn); it grows seven ears, and each ear has a hundred grains. Allāh gives manifold increase to whom He pleases. Allāh is Wāsiʿ, the All-Knowing.

[al-Baqarah (2): 261]
O you who believe! Whoever from amongst you turns back from his religion, Allāh will bring about a people whom He will Love, and they will love Him; humble towards the believers, stern towards the disbelievers, fighting in the Way of Allāh and never afraid of the blame of the blamers. That is the Grace of Allāh which He bestows on whom He Wills. Allāh is Wāsī‘, the All-Knowing.

\[al-Mā‘idah\ (5): 54\]

الهادي
al-Hādī (The Director)
الرشيد
ar-Rashīd (The Guide)

He is the one who guides and directs His servants towards all that would be of benefit to them and away from all that would bring them harm. He is the one who teaches them what they did not previously know and guides them with a guidance that keeps them firm upon the Straight Path. He is the one who inspires their hearts with taqwā and makes them penitent and compliant to His commands.

Ar-Rashīd also carries the meaning of Al-Ḥakīm (the Wise). He is ar-Rashīd in His Actions and Sayings. All of His legislation is good, correctly guiding and wise, His creation contains some wisdom.
Thus have We made for every Prophet an enemy amongst the disbelievers. But sufficient is your Lord as Hādī and Helper.

[al-Furqān (25): 31]

al-Ḥaqq (The Truth)

He is the Truth in His Person and Attributes, He is the most necessary of existences, He is what the whole of existence needs to exist. He has perfect Attributes. He is the one who was, and is, described with magnificence, beauty and perfection. He is the one who was and is known to be beneficent.

His saying is the truth, His Actions are the truth, the meeting with Him is the truth, His Messengers are the truth, His Books are the truth, His religion is the truth, worshipping Him alone is the truth, everything that has to do with Him is the truth. This is because Allāh is the Truth and what they supplicate to besides Him is false and invalid and because Allāh is the Most High, the Great.

And say: the Truth is from your Lord, so let whosoever who wills believe, and whosoever who wills disbelieve.

\[al-Kahf (18): 29\]

And what is there after truth apart from falsehood?

\[Yūnus (10): 32\]

Say: the truth has come and falsehood has departed, indeed falsehood by its nature is bound to depart.

\[al-Isrā' (17): 81\]

All praise is due to Allāh by whose grace all good actions are completed, and peace and blessings be upon Muḥammad, upon his Companions and all those who follow them until the Day of Judgement.
