 كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ، اللَّهُمَّ لَا مَانِعَ لِمَا

What to say in the...

Mornings & Evenings

In this section the supplications are in general for both the morning and evening, although where highlighted, there are slight changes in the wording which should be followed when reciting for the evening.

Anas رضي الله عنه said that he heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say: “Sitting with people remembering Allāh, Most High, from the morning (Fajr) prayer until sunrise is more beloved to me than freeing four slaves from the Children of Ismā`il. Sitting with people remembering Allāh from the afternoon (‘Aṣr) prayer until the sun sets is more beloved to me than freeing four slaves from the Children of Ismā`il.”¹

Benefits

Ibn al-Qayyim said: "These two chapters are of immense benefit and every single servant is in need of them, and this need is essential and indispensable. Benefits

When reciting this morning supplication for the evening, take note of the two differences in wording which can be found detailed on the next page (the two areas are highlighted by the change of colour in the text)

We have started a new day¹ and with it all dominion is Allāh's. Praise be to Allāh, none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh alone who has no partner. To Allāh belongs the dominion, and to Him belongs all praise; He has power over all things. My Lord, I ask You for the good in this day and the days that come after it, and I take refuge in You from the evil in this day and the days that come after it.² My Lord, I take refuge in You from laziness and helpless old age. My Lord, I take refuge in You from the punishment of the Fire, and from the punishment of the grave.³

1 When you say this in the evening you should say أَمْسَيْنَا وَأَمْسَى الْمُلْكُ لِلَّهِ Amsaynā wa amsal-mulku lillāh...: “We have ended another day and with it all dominion is Allāh's...”

2 When you say this in the evening you should say: رَبِّ أَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ مَا فِي هَذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَخَيْرَ مَا بَعْدَهَا، وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِي هَذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَشَرِّ مَا بَعْدَهَا Rabbi as'aluka khayra mā fi hādhihil-laylati, wa khayra mā ba'dahā, wa a'ūdhu bika min sharri mā fi hādhihil-laylati wa sharri mā ba'dahā: “I ask You for the good in this night and the nights that come after it, and I take refuge in You from the evil in this night and the nights that come after it.”

We have started a new day¹ upon the natural religion of Islām, the statement of sincerity, the religion of our Prophet, Muḥammad ﷺ, and the faith of our father, Ibrāhīm. He was upright and devout, and a Muslim. He was not one of the polytheists.²

Repetition by the tongue engraves the words in the heart. Understanding and reflection brings life to the spoken words. Together, they help us keep our eyes on our destination through the journey of life. They help us develop and strengthen our relationship with Allah, thereby bringing peace of mind and protecting us from the evil temptations. And we can hope that a person who always remembered that he has to meet with Allah will not be disappointed when that time comes.

The Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him said:

"The people of Paradise will not be sorry for anything except for the moments (in this life) that passed by in which they did not remember Allah, Most High"
